Purpose of the Course

Students will improve musicianship through a study of musical performance in a small ensemble.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the fundamentals of tone production and playing technique of their instrument.
- Demonstrate a variety of rehearsal techniques, leading to an ability to perform with competence.
- Improve intonation as an ensemble.
- Demonstrate ensemble communication.
- Demonstrate leadership skills within the ensemble.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the repertoire regularly performed by their ensemble.
- Improve musicianship in regards to style and musical interpretation.
- Integrate music theory and history into their performance preparation.

Expectations

- The student is expected to come prepared for the rehearsal and to be on time.
- The ensemble is expected to have two one-hour rehearsals each week.
- The student is expected to have practiced outside of the rehearsals.
- The student is expected to behave in an appropriate and professional manner.
- The student is expected to be interested in improving.
- The student is expected to perform on student recitals as assigned.
- The student is expected to attend other events as assigned by the Instructor.

Required Materials

Face mask with hole cut in it for mouthpiece (clarinet/saxophone)

Wind defender (flute)

Instrument bag

Instrument in excellent working condition

Portable metronome/tuner (smartphone apps are okay)

Reeds – broken in (students should purchase at least 1 box of D'Addario Reserve or Vandoren reeds)

All music and performance materials (music will be provided by the professor)

Meetings, Recordings, and Performances

Rehearsals or meetings will be arranged according to students' and professor's class schedules. They may be in-person or virtual, depending on space availability and safety.

Students will submit recordings of ensemble material to the professor. The material and recording deadline will be outlined by the professor.

- All rehearsals or meetings will be in the Fine Arts building or conducted through Blackboard Collaborate or Zoom.
- The ensemble will perform one recital a semester at the discretion of the professor. Performances will be in-person or virtual, depending on space availability and safety. If it is not safe or feasible to hold an in-person or virtual performance, there will be no performance.

Repertoire Research

The student will research a piece of repertoire assigned by the professor.

- Contents of the research document will be outlined by the professor.
- The document should be typed.
- The document should be submitted to the professor by the given deadline.
- Late documents will not be accepted.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all rehearsals and performances, whether they are virtual or in-person.

- If the student is ill or has been exposed to Covid-19, the student is excused from any in-person meeting.
- Students should give the instructor advance notice in the event that a rehearsal must be missed.
- Students must have a legitimate excuse for missing a rehearsal. If ill, the student must notify the professor before the missed rehearsal.
- Students who come to the rehearsal unprepared, without appropriate materials, or exhibit no desire to improve may be dismissed and earn an F for that rehearsal.

If a student must miss a rehearsal because of participation in an activity sanctioned by the college or being sick, the student must notify the instructor PRIOR to the day of absence. This notification must be in the form of a written document prepared by the Office of the Dean of Students or a doctor's note. Verbal notification or written notification after the absence is not acceptable.

Grading Standards

Final grades are based on a combination of the following:

- Weekly Meetings – 40%
- Recordings – 40%
- Repertoire Research – 20%

Grade Book

The course grade book is maintained at <https://southplainscollege.blackboard.com/webapps/login/>. You are encouraged to log in regularly, to keep track of your personal records. If you have questions about using this website, please do not hesitate to ask the instructor.

Covid-19 Statement

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Fall 2020 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.

SPC Mask Policy

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Spring 2021 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. - Altering grade records;
- Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
- Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
- Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Student Code of Conduct Policy

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disability Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office.
